

March 4 meeting

1. We are not taking a van to Bowling Green for the conference. Everyone that is going needs to get together and set up a car pull. Patricia is taking care of the Hotel rooms. Reply to this email ASAP if you want to reserve your spot.
2. Induction is March 18, the Thursday we get back from break. It starts at 7:30pm. We're working on a location. There is a NO jeans policy. Afterwards we're talking about going somewhere for pizza, so be prepared for that.
3. Our next meeting is Monday, March 15 at 4:00. We should know the spot for the induction by then.

Hope everyone is having a great spring break!
