

October 7, 2004 meeting

Location: Turoni's on Main St.

Time: 6:00 p.m.

1. Members welcomed Adrian Stoica and Kimberly Dooley and members of the Cardinal States Pro Chapter.
2. A crisis communication seminar will be presented by Patricia Ferrier on November 11 at 1:30 p.m. with location to be announced..
3. We will schedule a tour of The Courier & Press, date and time to be announced. All who attended were in agreement that the tour would be a good idea. Information will be forthcoming.
4. Treasurer Jason Bailey, a current employee at WFIE-14, will attempt to arrange a tour of his station, and further information will be forthcoming.
5. The members discussed the arrangements for Herb Marynell, a retired member of The Courier & Press, to speak to us about the Freedom of Information Act in our area and the increasing challenges of public affairs reporting. No day or time was specified. In addition to the program with Marynell, SPJ also would organize a FOI seminar for high schools students.
6. We also discussed volunteering for election night. ABC Channel 25 is enlisting volunteers. The job consists of collecting precinct vote totals. If you did not receive the email, you can contact Trisha Kennedy 465-1215, or email her at tkennedy@usi.edu. Also, a reliable source states that The Courier & Press will also be looking for volunteers. Further Information will be coming soon.

If you have any questions, email any of the officers.
